SUNDAY WORSHIP BULLETIN SUPPLEMENT

Call to Worship

We've gathered together in the presence of God to offer our praise and our prayers.

We come before God with confidence, knowing that even when we can't find the words, God's own Spirit is right here with us,
praying in us and for us,
giving shape to our wordless hopes and longings, and pleading for us before the throne of grace.

So let's come with joy to offer our worship to God who knows and loves us all.

Come, Let Us Worship God

Words and Music by Ray Makeever

Come, let us worship God

Welcome everyone
to the love of God

Rest for the weary

Food for the hungry

Water for the thirsty

Hope for the children

Welcome everyone
to the love of God

Hymn of Praise: All Creatures of Our God and King

Text: Francis of Assisi; Music: Geistliche Kirchengesang 1623; Tune: Lasst Uns Erfreuen

All creatures of our God and King

Lift up your voice and with us sing

Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou burning sun with golden beam

Thou silver moon with softer gleam

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Thou rushing wind that art so strong

Ye clouds that sail in heaven along

O sing ye! Alleluia!

Thou rising morn, in praise rejoice

Ye lights of evening, find a voice!

Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

All creatures, your Creator bless

And worship God in humbleness

O sing ye! Alleluia!
Praise, praise the Father, praise the Son
And praise the Spirit, Three in One!
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Here I Am to Worship

Words and Music: Tim Hughes

Light of the world, You stepped down into darkness Opened my eyes, let me see Beauty that made this heart adore You Hope of a life spent with You
King of all days, oh so highly exalted Glorious in heaven above
Humbly You came to the earth You created
All for love's sake became poor

Refrain: Here I am to worship
 Here I am to bow down
 Here I am to say that You're my God
 You're altogether lovely Altogether worthy
 Altogether wonderful to me

I'll never know how much it cost
To see my sin upon the cross x2, Refrain

Reading: Psalm 104:24–34 (The Message)

What a wildly wonderful world, God!
 You made it all, with Wisdom at your side, made earth overflow with your wonderful creations.
Oh, look—the deep, wide sea,
 brimming with fish past counting, sardines and sharks and salmon.
Ships plow those waters,
 and Leviathan, your pet dragon, romps in them.
All the creatures look expectantly to you to give them their meals on time.
You come, and they gather around;
 you open your hand and they eat from it.
If you turned your back,
 they'd die in a minute—
Take back your Spirit and they die,
 revert to original mud;
Send out your Spirit and they spring to life—

the whole countryside in bloom and blossom.
The glory of God—let it last forever!
Let God enjoy his creation!
He takes one look at earth and triggers an earthquake, points a finger at the mountains, and volcanoes erupt.
Oh, let me sing to God all my life long,
sing hymns to my God as long as I live!
Oh, let my song please him;
I'm so pleased to be singing to God.
But clear the ground of sinners—no more godless men and women!
O my soul, bless God!

Preparation for Prayer: Come, O Spirit, Dwell Among Us

Text: Janie Alford, 1979; Music: Thomas John Williams, 1890; Text © 1979 Hope Publishing Company

Come, O Spirit, dwell among us; come with Pentecostal power
Give the church a stronger vision; help us face each crucial hour
Built upon a firm foundation, Jesus Christ, the Cornerstone Still the church is called to mission that God's love shall be made known
We would raise our alleluias for the grace of yesteryears
For tomorrow's unknown pathway, hear, O Lord, our humble prayers
In the church's pilgrim journey you have led us all the way
Still in presence move before us, fire by night and cloud by day
Come, O Spirit, dwell among us; give us words of fire and flame
Help our feeble lips to praise you, glorify your holy name Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, Three in One: what mystery!
We would sing our loud hosannas now and through eternity

Prayer of Confession

Without your power, O God, we are lost.
We have done the things we would avoid,
and what we desire, we have not done.
By your purifying fire transform our lives;
Guide us into honesty and compassion so that filled with your peace, our dreams and visions may be one with yours through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

Response: Spirit of the Living God

Words and Music by Daniel Iverson

Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me
Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me

Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me
Spirit of the living God, fall afresh on me
O be joyful, O be jubilant, put your sorrow far away
Come rejoice and sing together this happy day

Sermon: Come, Holy Spirit, Come

The Scriptures (Acts 2:1–21; also Acts 1:4–5; 2:44–47)

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy,
and your young men shall see visions,
and your old men shall dream dreams.

Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit;
and they shall prophesy.

And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day.

Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.' (Acts 2:1–21)

While staying with them, he ordered them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for the promise of the Father. "This," he said, "is what you have heard from me; for John baptized with water, but you will be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days from now." (Acts 1:4–5)

All who believed were together and had all things in common; they would sell their possessions and goods and distribute the proceeds to all, as any had need. Day by day, as they spent much time together in the temple, they broke bread at home and ate their food with glad and generous hearts, praising God and having the goodwill of all the people. And day by day the Lord added to their number those who were being saved. (Acts 2:44–47)

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name

Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors

And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offering: Send It Down

Words and Music; Geron Davis

chorus: Send it on down, send it on down Lord, let the Holy Ghost come on down x2

Lord, we're your children
And we are asking for you to send down the fire
Our hearts are hungry, our spirits are thirsty
We need to feel your pow'r.
Just like the Prophet said it would be:
in the last days an outpouring we'd see Yes we are waiting, anticipating
Lord won't you send the Holy Ghost down! chorus
Heavenly Maker, hear our call
Let Your Holy Spirit fall
Send down the power, let it fall like rain
As we lift our praises to Your name! chorus
Lord, let the Holy Ghost come on down!

Closing Hymn: Come Sing, O Church, in Joy! (#305)

Text: Brian Dill, 1988; Music: John Darwall, 1770; Text © 1989 Brian Dill

Come sing, O church, in joy! Come join, O church, in song!

For Christ the Lord has led us through the ages long!

refrain: In bold accord, come celebrate the journey now and praise the Lord!

Long years have come and gone, and still God reigns supreme

Empowering us to catch the vision, dream the dream! refrain

Let courage be our friend; let wisdom be our guide

As we in mission magnify the Crucified! refrain

Come sing, O church, in joy! Come join, O church, in song!

For Christ the Lord has triumphed o'er the ages long! refrain
